Screen Printing Manufacturing and Supplies Company

Making over $1M in sales revenue just ten years ago, this company was on the verge of going under after the initial founder passed away. After acquiring the company and saving it from bankruptcy, current owners have enjoyed steady return and almost no sales fluctuation and customer turnover over the last 5 years. Ready for retirement, they want to pass it on to somebody that can continue servicing their loyal clients but also has the energy to grow the business back to its full potential. Highlights about this opportunity: Established in the late 1980's, it is a household name in the industry - Stable revenues and profits over the last 5 years - Extremely low customer turnover - Premium, niche positioning as a one-stop shop - Reasonable owners who want to see the business continue to be a success - Opportunity to do "creative" work - Opportunities to grow current business
